Statute of Westminster

Great remedial piece of legislation emending and conforming the law over a wide area; assented to by the Lords (spiritual & temporal) and Commons (knights & burgesses) Together with many other Statutes of reign of Edward I, notably Winchester (1285) - which compelled every man between 15 & 60 to possess arms for the defense of the realm and maintenance of the peace - Westminster II (1285) and Quia Emptores (1290) increased the status of monarch and parliament. Effect of statutes was to speed transformation of law of England from basis in custom to basis in statute
